

Black 85, White 100: Dorlas diatribe on the stupidity of allowing political sensitivity to stop us getting to the truth about those divisive racial average IQ scores

The whole concept of political sensitivity presupposes there is something to be sensitive about. And, when it comes to those racial average IQ scores, presumably the thing were supposed to be politically sensitive about is the fact that the average black person is less intelligent than the average white person. But heres my big point. I have good grounds for thinking its not a fact so I dont see why I need to be politically sensitive about something that is a load of codswallop. So, heres the deal. If you will bear with me while I trample all over your sensitivities so as to engage with the complexity of the issue of racial average IQ scores and while I think the unthinkable, I will prove to you beyond reasonable doubt, right here in this book, that the Black 85, White 100 IQ scores do not prove that the average black person is less intelligent than the average white person. Do we have a deal?
