

When 16 year old Big Wave surfer Jax Valentine disappears in the sea, a surprising shift is ignited. Moving through the portal of sorrow, Juliet Valentine, DiDi Long, Minke James, Erik James and Josie O'Grady come alive in an extraordinary eco-erotic blossoming. In this tale of death, sex, and love, the Shaman Woman of Oceanside Trailer Park works magic as water comes alive and all of life becomes imbued with the power of thought and cosmological consciousness. As we enter into this story we begin to experience what can happen in the brief moment of our existence when we emerge into acute awareness and begin to realize the direction and degree of our potential. We are alive, created of all that has been, and we are creating that which shall become. Before we return to the folds of the deep cosmic interior, let us seize and celebrate the beauty and wisdom of our miraculous awakening. Read Cosmic Interiors and see why Pamela Eakins' work has been heralded by authors such as Carolyn Brigit Flynn, Mary K. Greer, Rachel Pollack, James Wanless, Gareth Knight, Brian Swimme, Charlene Spretnak, Bernard Haisch, Angeles Arrien and many more.
