

Everlasting (Never Forsaken) (Volume 4)

HE FOUND A LOVE SO GREAT, IT WAS STRONGER THAN DEATH ITSELF. When the one person Reid looked up to the most was stolen from him, a single promise gave him the determination needed to go on. Reid continually fights against every possible hindrance and rejection from high society. A relationship that should have brought joy, was built upon nothing more than secrets and deception. The love he sought after had betrayed him. Reid didn't know who he could trust, other than himself. That is until the unthinkable happens and leaves him completely helpless. Reid was forced to examine his life and it was then that he was shown a love so vast, he realized this unconditional love only comes from God. Little did he know what would be required of him. To lay down his life for another. A brother's hatred, a son's promise, and the Father's everlasting love would change the course of a rejected people forever.
