

The Janitor

An abused teenaged boy and his friends are befriended by a man who teaches them how to box. After their friend is put on the spot and given a choice while the boys are involved in a competition, the now young adults see the bigger issues at hand and must harness their resources and all of their friends skills while they prepare to tell their friends story. The only problem is Paul Falcoe must finally face his past and who he really is while Deke is forced to make a decision of his own.
