

The Hollywood Op

Includes 2012 Shamus nominee A Bullet from Yesterday! As Hollywood's golden age wanes, private eye Scott Elliott digs among the ruins. Eight stories include the never-before-published Sleep Big, in which Elliott cracks a case that famously eluded Philip Marlowe. In Garbos Knees, a paving square signed by the reclusive screen idol has gone missing. But was it Garbos stone the thief was after? Chasing stray actresses, hot jewelry, and a gun that may have started a war, Scott Elliott demonstrates once again two-time Shamus winner Terence Faherty's sharp eye and keen ear for characters living on broken dreams. Faherty writes this period like he was there. Crime Spree
