

Galens Legions II: Volume II

The medical world is a place of action and subtle adventure populated with interesting characters and fascinating situations. Doctors are human with the same vulnerabilities, desires, and wants as anyone else. Come explore this world: in Little Brother where an unexpected choice must be made in the face of a fatal illness; in Wave Function where a man attempts an escape from total paralysis and coma; in Dying for Hair where the price of getting rid of baldness is higher than expected; in Digital Eyes where electronic implants provide an alternative to intraocular lenses; in Sickness where diseases of the mind and body play against personal adversaries; in Bio Wars where infectious disease is seen as a problem in relationships and as a potential weapon; in The Book where the war between attorney and doctor is fought between identical twins in settling the estate of a deceased aunt; and in The Palace of Perfection where a famous plastic surgeon is under investigation for the disappearance of his disgruntled patients. There is a little of everything here: science fiction, mystery, romance, intrigue, and irony. Read on and enjoy an intellectual ride to be remembered.
