

Evangelines Ghost (Volume 1)

The year is 1946. MI6 operative, Victoria Melies, finds herself at the Pearly Gates, being assigned to an eternity in Purgatory. Her life-long identity is deemed inconsequential when she learns that forevermore, she will only be known by her code name: Evangeline. However, the always-intrepid WWII spy argues with St. Peter that she must be given the chance to avenge her murder, so she can rest in peace. Yeah, yeah, yeah. St. Peter has heard it all before, but his decision to ignore her request is overruled, and Evangeline ends up back on earth as a ghost. There, she stumbles across her old nemesis, Bunny Stanton, who is very much alive and involved in plot to assassinate President Harry S. Truman.

Evangeline embarks on a crusade to save the Presidents life. However, she ruffles the feathers of the powers that be and soon finds herself in trouble for breaking the Rules and Regulations Pertaining to the Newly-Dead. The question is: can she get back in their good graces in time to save the Presidents life?
